The International Biennial Poster Design Terras Gauda celebrates its 14th edition with €16,000 in prizes

More than 17,000 posters from 96 countries have participated since 2002 in the most important graphic design competition sponsored by a private organization

Works can be submitted at any time before the September 30th deadline

The International Biennial Poster Design Terras Gauda – Francisco Mantecón Competition is celebrating its 14th edition this year, in an event that has established itself since it began in 2002 as one of the most prestigious among the art community on five continents.

More than 17,000 posters from 96 countries around the world have participated in the thirteen previous editions. Geographic diversity is also reflected in its awards: artists and studios in Japan, the United States, Germany, Belgium, Portugal, Poland or Spain have taken top honors in the world's most important graphic design competition sponsored by a private organization.

Terras Gauda Wineries will award €16,000 to the winners, with €10,000 going to the 1st prize, €2,000 to the 1st Runner-up, 2nd Runner-up and Honorable Mention, respectively. The deadline to submit works is September 30.

The panel of judges for the International Biennial Poster Design Terras Gauda 2019 will benefit from the criteria of professionals with recognized prestige: internationally acclaimed designer Javier Jaen, winner of the Laus Award and author of works for The New York Times, The Washington Post or National Geographic; and Diego Areso, Art Director of El País and El País Semanal. Along with them, Portuguese National Design Prize winner Miguel Palmeiro will attend on behalf of the studio United By, the winner of the latest edition of the competition.

José María Fonseca, Chairman of the Terras Gauda Group, will preside over the panel of judges, accompanied by CEO Enrique Costas; Enrique López Veiga, President of the Vigo Port Authority; Nava Castro, director of the Galician Tourism Board; Pilar Barreiro, philologist and widow of Francisco Mantecón, and Paulino Novo, who will serve as secretary.

Galician Tourism Board Competition

The Galician Tourism Board is reinforcing its partnership with the International Biennial Poster Design Terras Gauda through the creation of a closed binding competition in which only the finalists and award winners of this 14th edition will participate. The works selected in the Galician Tourism Board Competition, eligible for €10,000 in prize money, will be the promotional image of the '9th and 10th Galician Wine Routes Open Door Sessions.'

The International Biennial Terras Gauda – Francisco Mantecón Advertising Poster Competition is supported by the Vigo Port Authority, as well as the Department of Culture and Tourism through the Galician Tourism Agency.
